

ÉDUCATION-COUP-DE-FIL

ÉDUCATION-COUP-DE-FIL is a free telephone service which provides professional counseling to families about every day life matters concerning the relationship between parents and children. All our counselors are trained and experienced professionals. Each time you call, you may ask for the same counselor. Service is available to all family members – parents, step parents, grandparents, teenagers and children. Daycare workers, teachers and others are also welcome to call. The service is confidential and anonymous.

At kindergarten, my little boy has been tearing up the other kids' drawings.

My 3 year-old doesn't like our new baby. She is very aggressive with him...

Since the separation, I hardly recognize my son. He's getting hostile and he seems depressed.

As a stepmother, I'm not always sure about what I should do when my son and his stepbrother start fighting...

Our adopted daughter is 7 years old. Recently, she cries a lot, she refuses to see her friends, she is often complaining of stomach-ache in the morning. Today, we had to bring her to school against her will.
